GSA Capabilities Statement

Our Clients

JetCo Solutions clients have excellent capabilities, experience, and expertise in their industry. They are highly qualified and have decided to sell to government. None of our clients can compete because we won't represent two companies that could be competitors. If we don't think you will be successful in government, expect us to tell you.

Clients that maximize our services provide the following resources to support government sales:

- Designate a responsive point of contact and ensure they have executive support for this effort
- Provide information for infrastructure activities
- Provide input for B2G marketing strategies
- Respond quickly to opportunities to determine bid/no-bid and to authorize submissions
- Respond quickly to requests for pricing and assets required for bid responses; quickly review written proposals prior to submission

Small and Strong

The results speak volumes. JetCo Solutions has won over $4 billion in contract awards for clients - and 98% of the wins are for small business clients.
